Take-home note

Joseph's dream · Matthew 1:18–25

Today in Sunday school

Today your child heard how an angel spoke to Joseph in a dream (Matthew 1:18–25). Joseph was engaged to Mary and learned that she was expecting a baby. He was confused and planned to end the engagement without shaming her. Then an angel told him, "Don't be afraid," and said to name the baby Jesus. Joseph woke up, took Mary home, and named the baby Jesus. Matthew tells us that Jesus is also called Immanuel, which means "God with us."

Talk about it

- How do you think Joseph felt when he woke up from his dream?
- Joseph made a home for Mary and Jesus. Who makes a home for you?
- When is it good to remember that God is with you?

Try this at home

Hang your child's door hanger on their bedroom door. At bedtime this week, say together, "God is with us," and name one good thing from the day.

Pray together

Dear God, thank you for being with us, day and night. Help us be brave and kind like Joseph. Amen.

Memory verse
"They shall call his name Immanuel, which is, being interpreted, "God with us."" (Matthew 1:23)
