Take-home note

The shepherds hear the good news · Luke 2:8–20

Today in Sunday school

Today your child heard about the shepherds on the night Jesus was born (Luke 2:8–20). An angel told them, “Don’t be afraid,” and brought good news of great joy for all the people. A sky full of angels praised God. The shepherds hurried to Bethlehem, found the baby in the manger, and told everyone what they had seen. The children learned that God’s good news is for everyone, and that good news is for sharing.

Talk about it

- How do you think the shepherds felt when the angel came?
- Why do you think God told the shepherds first?
- Who could we share some good news with this week?

Try this at home

Read Luke 2:8–20 together. Step outside one evening this week and look at the night sky the way the shepherds did. Then call or write to someone with a piece of good news.

Pray together

Dear God, thank you for the good news of Jesus, which is for all the people. Help our family share your love. Amen.

Memory verse
“I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people.” (Luke 2:10)
